Dear Mr. Parkes - Last evening when the chills were running up and down our emotional nerve centers my thoughts kept going out to the mother of the wonderful violinist - I wanted to see your face and hold your hand.
I know you are used to being

For the first time in months - her playing soothed our souls - for I who know nothing of music felt I was being lifted up and wafted away into clouds - I never had quite the same sensation before.

Perhaps a little of my feeling was due to the fact that you both seem to belong to us a little and thrilled by your daughter's <sup>musical</sup> but I am sure last night - must have given you an especial thrill - what a beautiful star beautiful the look of her lovely face again! I am sure you helped cause that.

I am no musician so I don't know how to say the proper things to express my praise for it is the evening that Shirley said this evening when I was Parlow's play my I slept all night

With my love and congratulations to Mrs. R. S. Smith like you I was eager to hear the concert a great night in the musical world of Toronto.
Mrs. G. please give my love and thanks to Miss Paulow. I know your mail is heavy today with lots of appreciation - No more with the days.
Mr. Day who is a very quiet man he must not have missed the concert for anything for he'd never heard Mrs.
Paulow play before. I'm so glad to hear that the California friends of your triumphs have
